Copper 'Desert Flower' Table Top Sculpture

John Steck

USA, 1960s

From Steck's 'Desert Flower' series, this table top sculpture exhibits, per an America House advertisement in Craft Horizons January/February 1965 (which illustrates this sculpture), "sizzle blooms of burnished copper on long-stemmed bronze and a fantasia of (brown-copper) foliage". A popular model available in two heights, 18 and 26 inches, this example is the larger of the two being taller and having four stems...
