Pair of Original 'Westport' Lounge Chairs

Thomas Lee for Harry Bunnell

Adirondack Region NYS, 1904

Profoundly innovative and original, the 'Westport' Adirondack chair a century after its introduction remains a tribute to the creativity of Americas' indigenous designers/craftsmen. Named after the rural town in New York state's Adirondack region close to where it was first conceived, the Westport chair embodies the progressive principals of the emerging American Arts & Crafts movement of simplicity, honesty of...
