Teak and Oak Extension Dining Table

Hans J. Wegner for Johannes Hansen

Denmark, 1960s

A rectangular dining table with a teak top concealing bronze handled steel bar pullouts for hidden leaf storage under the top. The leaves are inserted into internal rails from each end. The top rests on a solid oak base with splayed, tapered dowel legs. There are multiple exposed brass hardware details, oval connections on the legs for disassembling the base, And brass rings for extending the steel leaf rails. Two...
